Re: United States v. Heshl Abraham
No. 20 Cr. 411 (RA)

Dear Judge Abrams:

I am writing in connection with Heshl Abraham's surrender date which is currently scheduled for Monday, November 4, 2024. At sentencing, Mr. Abraham indicated that he would like to surrender expeditiously so that he can commence his sentence and return back to his family as quickly as possible. At the same time we raised a concern that Mr. Abraham might not be designated by the current surrender date. We have not yet received confirmation of such a designation, and I have not been able to get confirmation from the government whether they were able to learn anything different from the BOP. As a result, and at Your Honor's suggestion at sentencing, I am writing to request that Mr. Abraham's time to surrender be adjourned for two weeks, i.e., until November 18, 2024, to permit the BOP in the interim to designate Mr. Abraham to a facility.

Respectfully submitted,

Steven Y. Yurowitz
